We are also trying to find free rooms in private accommodation for students and colleagues from low-income-countries. If you are interested in staying in private accommodation, please follow further information on the website within this updated document.

We will not be able to provide information on private accommodation options until end of January 2025.

Please also find accommodation within the common platforms Airbnb, Booking.com and others.

Good luck for finding a suitable place during the conference!
